

Further training in Germany for professionals from abroad

Would you like to improve your career prospects? We can help you find a suitable further training programme in Germany – based on your previous qualifications and individual needs.

The aim of further training is to find you a job in Germany. We will support you in this endeavour.

- ✓ Individual assessment: Your existing qualifications are analysed to determine the right further training for you.
- ✓ Further training in accordance with German standards: You complete your further training in accordance with the standards recognised in Germany.
- ✓ Language courses as required: If necessary, we will help you to improve your German language skills.
- ✓ Better career opportunities: Your further training not only increases your chances on the German labour market, but also internationally.
- ✓ Goal: Finding a job in Germany.

Each case is assessed individually – some may only need a short period of further training, others may need a language course or a professional adaptation qualification. We will help you find the best path for your career in Germany.
