

Your future starts here – apprenticeship in Germany with optimal preparation! 🇩🇪

Training in Germany offers you many opportunities for your professional future. But without sufficient language skills and preparation, getting started can be a challenge. This is exactly where we come in!

We help you to prepare optimally for your training:

- ✓ German up to B1 level – you will learn the language to be able to communicate confidently in everyday and professional life. The language level for the visa is also required. (Info: If you already have a German language level, your costs will be reduced accordingly)
- ✓ Preparation for the apprenticeship – We teach you important terms and basics that you will need for your apprenticeship.
- ✓ Application support – We help you to find the right companies and apply successfully.
- ✓ Organisation of internship
Confirmation from the labour office that you are needed as a future skilled worker.

Additional information:

During your stay in Germany you are allowed to work up to 20 hours a week.

Why is our preparation important?

Many companies in Germany are looking for motivated trainees, but attach great importance to language skills (just as important for the visa) and basic knowledge in the respective occupational field. Our targeted preparation significantly increases your chances of a successful start.
